Dear Cheryl:

On behalf of Chair Signe Holstein, CAE, members of CSAE's Honours & Awards Committee and the independent Panel of Judges, I am pleased to inform you that Fored BC has been awarded CSAE's Communication Award of Excellence for Best Website.

For the second consecutive year ... our sincere congratulations!

As you know, the Canadian Society of Association Executives established the Awards last year to acknowledge and celebrate outstanding examples of communications vehicles created by non-profit organizations. While we received several submissions in this particular category that were truly outstanding, your website was unanimously judged as being the best.

The Award will be presented at a special Honours & Awards Ceremony being held in Gatineau, Quebec on July 28th as part of CSAE's National Conference & Showcase. Our records indicate that you will be attending the Conference and we shall be pleased to present the award to you at that time.

Please share the good news with your colleagues and members.

Once again, congratulations.

Yours truly,

Bob Hamp
Manager, Communications
